

ACADEMIA

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

6-8 April 2022, Rome, Italy

introduction

The Academia course provides participants with intensive training on some of the key skills necessary to succeed in research, publishing, and professional interactions.

This course is recommended to all transplant professionals who wish to learn how to conduct rigorous research, get published, effectively present their work, and refine their communication skills.

Topics include: how to conduct a systematic review; statistics; how to prepare and deliver an effective and engaging presentation; communication and unconscious bias.

The course combines lectures, workshops, group work, and short presentations by participants.

When
