

The ETAHP ‘Transplant Care Management Award’

The European Transplant Allied Healthcare Professionals (ETAHP) - committee is a committee within ESOT where allied healthcare professionals (AHPs) and nurses throughout Europe are united to ensure the best possible care to all transplant candidates and recipients, with the aim to optimise their outcomes.

We are convinced that the future of optimising patient outcomes in organ transplantation cannot only be achieved by improving medical therapies. Promoting health by improving lifestyle and self-management during the process of Recovery and Adaptation before and after organ transplantation is even as important. Transplant candidates and recipients have a leading role in identifying and prioritising these improvements. By providing excellent person-centred care, AHPs and nurses can manage and guide transplant candidates and recipients through the process of Adaptation and Recovery.

Within ETAHP, we want to stimulate innovative and quality improvement projects that support nurses and AHPs in providing care to transplant candidates and recipients within European Transplant centres. Therefore we developed the ‘Transplant Care Management Award’.
